Justice Dato' Lee Swee Seng, Judge Court of Appeal Malaysia, graduated with Bachelor of Laws (Hons) degree from University of Malaya and obtained his Master of Laws thereafter. He also holds an MBA degree from University of Southern Cross, Australia. Justice Dato' Lee was called to the Malayan Bar in February 1985 and was in active legal practice until May 2010 when he was appointed a Judicial Commissioner of the High Court of Malaya. He was made a Judge of the High Court of Malaya in 19th February 2014 and was seated the Judge of the Construction Court in Kuala Lumpur. He was elevated as Court of appeal Judge since 8th August 2019.

He has presented numerous papers and spoken at seminars and conferences on corporate and securities law, intellectual property, franchise and competition law, mediation, contractual disputes and many other topics. He was also a visiting fellow of Taylor University Law School and a part-time lecturer with UM Law Faculty for the LLM Masters Programme. Justice Dato' Lee is a trained advocacy trainer with the Malaysian Bar and has conducted numerous courses on this subject.

This discussion will explore critical topics, including adjudicator jurisdiction, legal representation, Final Account claims, and the impact of Conditional Payment Clauses. Featuring a distinguished judge, this event is essential for anyone seeking clarity on construction dispute resolution and its evolving legal framework.
