

Introductory Course for Mediation

*Empowering Legal & Professional
Representatives in Dispute Resolution*

Organised by:

SiADR Intensive Introductory Course in International Mediation

SiADR, in collaboration with BAIAC Singapore, proudly presents an intensive 1-day introductory course in international mediation in Kuching. This course is designed for advocates, counsel, solicitors, and legal representatives to learn how to advise and represent clients in private mediation. It also serves as a stepping stone for those interested in becoming mediators, covering key strategies, challenges, and best practices in the mediation process.

The intensive course involves theory and practice to provide participants with a hands-on experience in conducting mediation.

27th June 2025 (Friday)

8:00 AM – 7:00 PM

Lot 10 Boutique Hotel

Promoting effective, efficient, and accessible dispute resolution in Sarawak and beyond.

What You Will Learn:

- Mediating Advocates / Counsels
- Legal Representatives & Solicitors
- Professionals supporting mediation processes

You Will Gain Skills in:

- Representing clients in private mediation
- Understanding mediation procedures
- Advising on non litigation dispute solutions

Register now – Limited to 24 participants only:

- Course fee: RM200
- Accreditation: +RM100

PROGRAMME OUTLINE:

Day 1

- Fundamentals of conflicts in business and society
- Understanding the basic concepts of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR)

Day 2

- Basic legal issues and concepts relating to disputes
- Understanding communication skills in conflicts and disputes resolution

Day 3

- Understanding the key concepts of mediation
- Role play and Evaluation

Session 1 – Conflicts and Disputes

08:30 AM – 10.30 AM:

- Understanding conflicts and disputes in business and society
- Communication skills in dispute resolution
- Cultural factors in dispute resolution

Session 2 – What is Mediation and Alternative Dispute Resolution

10:45 AM – 12.00 PM:

- Introduction to Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR)
- Mediation compared with arbitration
- Strengths and weaknesses for the different types of ADR

Session 3 – Key concepts in Mediation and its conduct

13:00 PM – 15.00 PM:

- Mediation – process and structure
- The mediator – purpose, roles and expectation
- Legal aspects relating to mediation
- Settlement agreements

Session 4 – Mediation Simulation

15:15 PM – 16.00 PM:

- Background of the dispute
- Organising a mediation session
- Dealing with difficult parties

Session 5 – Mediation Practicum

16:30 PM – 18.00 PM:

- Participants involved in mediation practicum

18:00 PM – 18:30 PM: Observations and discussions

18:30 PM – 19.00 PM: Closing and presentation of a certificate of participation

The course will be delivered by SiADR supported by Beihai Asia International Arbitration Centre (BAIAC) Singapore.

President of BAIAC Singapore, Professor Steve Ngo will be assisted by a team of mediators and mediation practitioners from SiADR. Professor Steve is a Singaporean international arbitrator, academic and Alternative Dispute Resolution consultant. He is also a foreign member of the SiADR Advisory Board for Continuing Education. Prof Steve has lectured and published extensively on the subject of international arbitration and ADR where his professional and academic activities focus on Southeast Asia, East Asia and South Asia, the three key global economic growth regions. He has been consulted by both the private and public sectors on arbitration-related matters.

Ready to Join?

Register Now

Seats are limited 24 only (up to 36 if high demand).

To register or express interest:

WhatsApp: 0112 8866 680

Email: adm.siadr@gmail.com

Subject: "SiADR Intro Mediation Course Registration"

Course Fee: RM200

Optional Accreditation Fee: RM100

Scan to register

